

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others; and,

Whereas, Dianne Miles Dalton was born in Hoven, South Dakota, attended grade school in the Pierre and Onida school districts and graduated from Sully Buttes High School at Onida after which she attended the Aberdeen School of Commerce; and,

Whereas, Dianne married Leonard Dalton and to that union four daughters were born: Laurie, twins, Leanne and Lynette, and Dawn, who have further blessed their lives with eight grandchildren; and,

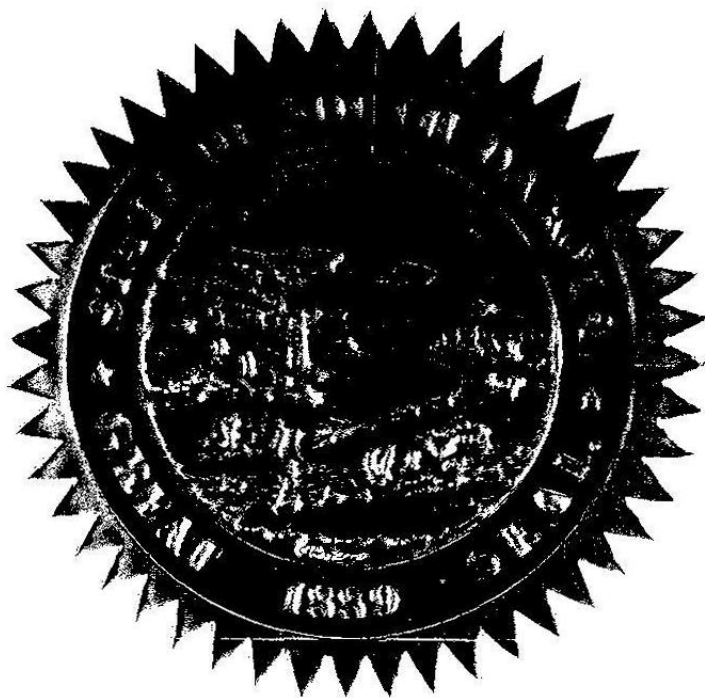

Whereas, In 1975, Dianne began her working career with the Sully County Register of Deeds office and in 1978, she joined the staff of the South Dakota Department of Agriculture. Dianne worked in the home health care industry for a year before returning to state government in 1985, at the Division of Motor Vehicles; and,

Whereas, After 23 years of service to the state of South Dakota, Dianne has chosen to retire on September 14, 2007, allowing her more time to be involved with grandchildren's activities, camping, fishing and hunting, and her craft projects:

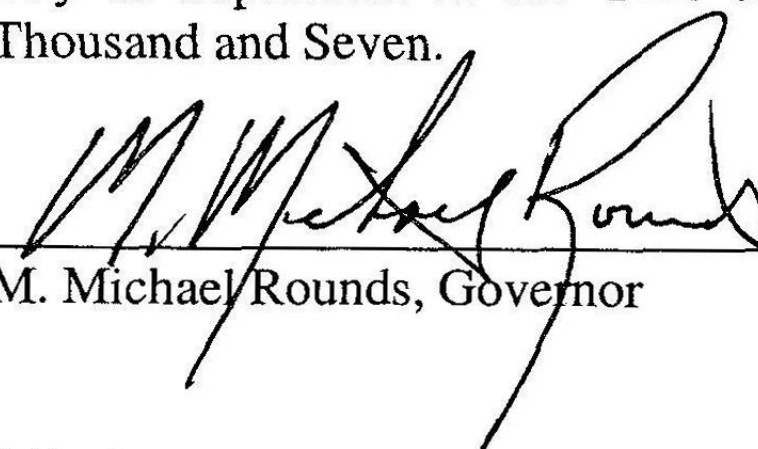

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join with her colleagues, family and friends in wishing her well in her retirement and thanking her for her service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
